

SMITH & SCHIPPER,

91-93 WALL STREET.

CABLE ADDRESS:

MORING.

New York, April 26th, 1894.

The United States Mint,

Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen:--

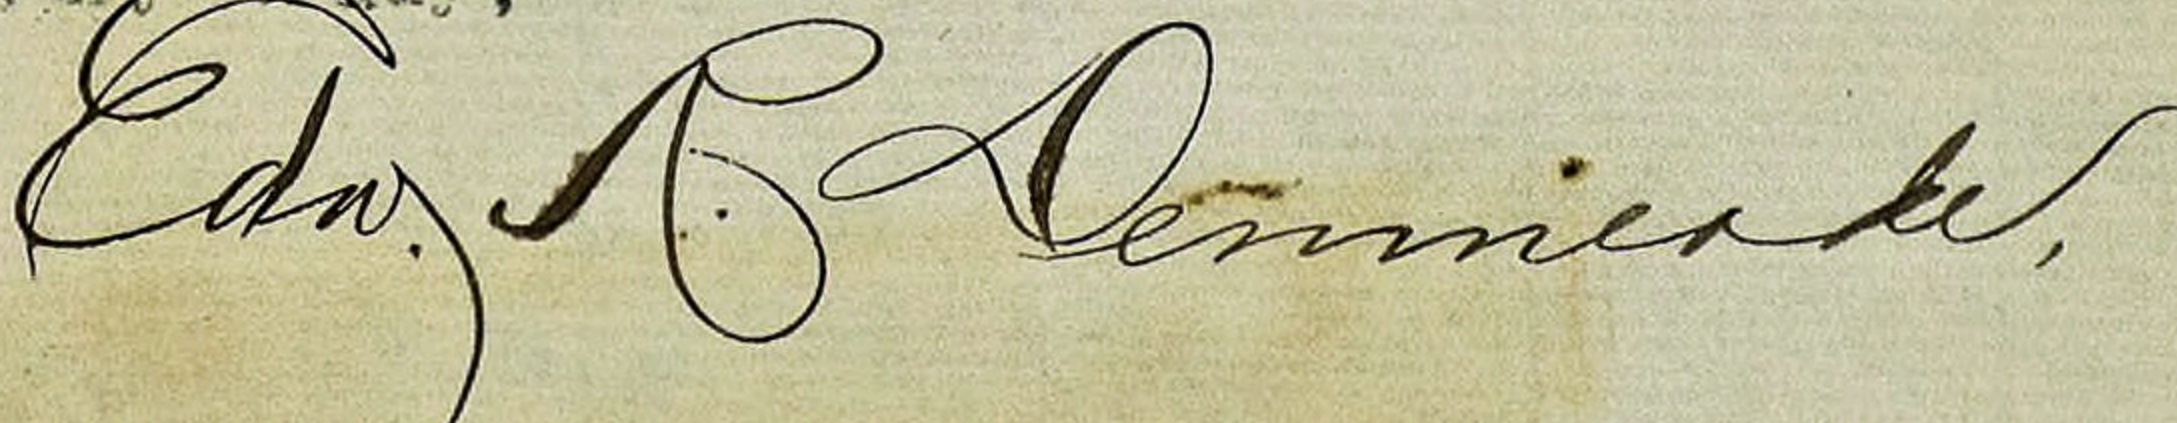

Having noticed in your catalogue that there is a premium on the Liberty Cents of 1794 and 1799 respectively, I write to state that I am in possession of one of each date, and would be pleased to have you quote me a price on them, or, if you are not a buyer of old coins, to kindly let me know where I could dispose of them to the best advantage.

The coin of 1794 is a Liberty head, with a cap just off the head, with the date perfectly plain 1794 under the head. Under the wreath on the back is written the fraction $1/100$. On the edge of the coin is indented the words: ONE HUNDRED FOR A DOLLAR.

The coin of 1799 is a plain Liberty Head.

If you can quote me a price for these two coins, or give me any information as to where I can dispose of them to advantage, I would greatly appreciate the favor, and thanking you in advance for any information you may give me, I remain,

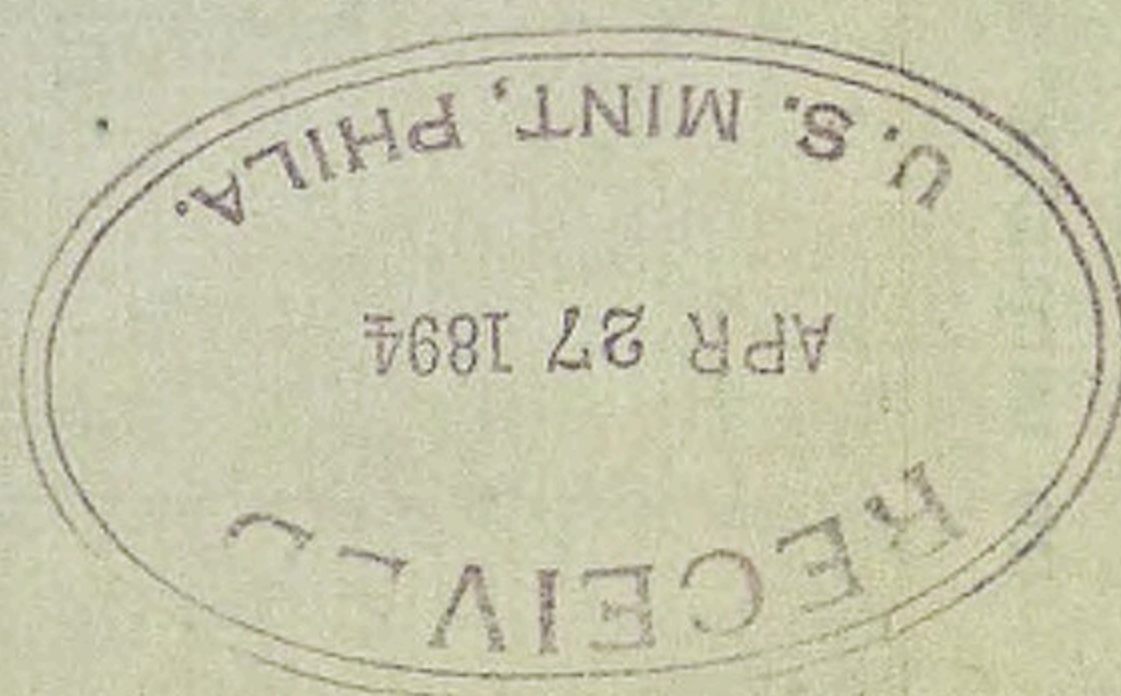

Yours very truly,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, reading "Edw. B. Demme". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looping initial "E" and a long, sweeping underline.

New York
April 26, 1894

Edw. R. Lennard

Asks the price quoted
on Liberty Bonds of 1794 &
1799.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 185

[Abstract:] Asks the price quoted on Liberty Cents of 1794 & 1799.

Smith & Schipper,
New York,
April 26, 1894

The United States Mint,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen: --

Having noticed in your catalogue that there is a premium on the Liberty Cents of 1794 and 1799 respectively, I write to state that I am in possession of one of each date, and would be pleased to have you quote me a price on them, or, if you are not a buyer of old coins, to kindly let me know where I could dispose of them to the best advantage.

The coin of 1794 is a Liberty head, with a cap just off the head, with the date perfectly plain 1794 under the head. Under the wreath on the back is written the fraction 1/100. On the edge of the coin is indented the words: ONE HUNDRED FOR A DOLLAR.

The coin of 1799 is a plain Liberty Head.

If you can quote me a price for these two coins, or give me any information as to where I can dispose of them to advantage, I would greatly appreciate the favor, and thanking you in advance for any information you may give me, I remain.

Yours very truly,
Edw. R. Denmerde